THE Bolton NEWS

Owens serves as legislative page

Special to The Bolton News

Bryce Owens of Bolton recently served as a page for the Mississippi House of Representatives. Pages generally run errands for officials and House staff. Owens, 17, is the son of Dina and Daryl Owens, and he is a senior at Raymond High School. He was sponsored for the week by Representative Stephanie Foster (D – Raymond). When asked about the week, Owens said, “I enjoyed my time as a page. I got to meet new friends and lots of people. Thank you, Representative Foster, for this great opportunity.”

Harris receives Hinds scholarship

Special to The Bolton News

The Hinds Community College Foundation recently recognized scholarship recipients, donors and other honorees. Among those recognized were (l to r) Mallory Gipson of Florence, who received the Lora M. Underwood Memorial Scholarship; Weldon Grizzell of Jackson, who received the Vashti and Clyde Muse Impact Scholarship; Brantley Martin of Raymond, who received the Dr. Vernon Clyde Muse Scholarship, and Carmen Harris of Bolton, who received the Vashti Underwood Muse Scholarship. With them was Hinds Community College President Emeritus Dr. Clyde Muse (front).

Johnson of Bolton honored with new Hinds award

Special to The Bolton News

Hinds Community College has selected its first group of honorees in its new employee recognition program called IDEAList. IDEALists can be nominated by anyone at the college or the community. They model the IDEALS as identified in the college values of Integrity, Diversity, Excellence, Accountability, Leadership and Stewardship. Included in the honor was Jeffrey Johnson of Bolton, Hinds’ director of physical plant and maintenance, Jackson Campus. A Hinds graduate, Johnson has been employed with the college for six years. He is in charge of the regular care and maintenance of the campus buildings and grounds “to ensure the campus is aesthetically pleasing, properly repaired, well-maintained and safe.” Pictured (left to right) are, front row: Julie Clark of Brandon, Wendy Lingle of Pearl, Jackie Jackson of Raymond, Terishuna Bass of Terry, Dana Harpole of Vicksburg; and back row: Brad Smith of Brandon, Karen Mays of Jackson, Jeffery Johnson of Bolton, Renita Ragsdale of Clinton, and Emily Thomas of Richland.
